Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments
Bangalore.

Sir,

In reply to your docket No. H 803 dated 20th instant forwarding an objection statement disallowing Rs 9-0 for 2 items (noted in the margin) from the detailed Contingent bill of this District for August 1902, I have the honor to explain as follows:—

(1) The blue black ink supplied from the Stationery Depôt having been exhausted, the Superintendent of the Depôt was addressed to supply Officer's ink, which was included in the indent for the year 1902-03. Pending receipt of the supply, a pair of Stephen's blue-black ink had to be purchased in the local market for present use.

(2) As two sets of topo sheets were bound into book forms in cloth, the bill for binding exceeded the Grant provided in the Budget (viz Rs 30-0) under the head "Books, Maps and Advertisements" by Rs 6-8-0, for which a re-appropriation statement is herewith submitted for Sanction of Government.

I have the honor to be
